Funeral of Mrs. Handlan.
The funeral occurred yesterday afternoon of the late Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Handlan, who died Sunday at St. Paul, Minn. It took place from the residence of Mr. R. H. List, on Ninth street. Rev. Joseph Speers, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, conducted the services, and the interment was at Greenwood cemetery. The pall bearers were all relatives of the deceased, as follows: Will C. Handlan, Jr., John Handlan, Sr., John Handlan, Jr., James Handlan, J. B. Handlan and Joseph Handlan.

A Serious Charge.
A day or so ago Dr. McMullen levied on the goods and chattels of Charles Beatty for money owed. In the meantime, it is alleged, a wagon was employed in splitting the goods to Ohio by George Howard, John Curtis and John Troy, Jr., consequently Constable Jas. Creighton yesterday had the trio arraigned before Squire Rogers on warrants charging them with obstructing an officer in the discharge of his duty and interfering with levied goods. The charge is a serious one. The justice can only hold the preliminary examination, the criminal court being the sentencing tribunal. The cases come up before Squire Rogers to-day at 1 p. m.

A Card.
We desire to correct any impression that we are alone responsible for the favorable decision of the United States court, with reference to Wheeling stogie. While it is true the suit which resulted so favorably, was commenced by this company, the local manufacturers all contributed funds, and otherwise aided in prosecuting the suit. Particular credit is due Messrs. Riley and Thomas, of the Stogie Makers' League, and also to a committee of the manufacturers, as well as the chamber of commerce committee, who all worked faithfully that the local stogie industry be protected.

SOCIAL SESSION.

The Elks Make Merry in a "Stag" at Arion Hall.

FIRST SINCE STREET FAIR

And it was a Hammer in Every Respect—Large Attendance With Several Visiting Brother Elks—Preceded by Three Initiations—An Interesting Programme, With the Customary Gladsome Banquet.

Wheeling lodge No. 23, B. P. O. E. held a social session last night at Arion hall, that was superior to any of this lodge's "stags" for a long time, which is saying a great deal. It was the first since the Elks' street fair and the jolly antlered monarchs went into it with a will. The festivities reigned until after midnight.

The social session followed the initiation of three new members, as follows: Robert Anderson, the county assessor, Harry Balser and Michael Chute. The presiding genius was Mr. George Lutz, ably assisted by Secretary Thomas O'Brien, Jr., in the imposition and recording of fines for which the wayward brothers suffered. Meister's band added greatly to the programme and the large attendance was regaled with a feast, gastronomic and intellectual.

Rev. L. W. Doggett opened the session with prayer. The first speaker was Charles W. Roberts, advance agent of "Humpty Dumpty," who told a good story in good style.

"Our Absent Brothers" was spoken on by City Solicitor Frank W. Nesbitt, the Elks drinking silently to the toast, as is their custom at 11 p. m.

Mr. John Waterhouse was forced to detail his recent trip to Colorado, and how his promotion to general of the West Virginia brigade of the Uniform Rank, K. of P. weighed on his shoulders, was the topic handed out by Chairman Lutz to James H. Lancaster. His response was appropriate.

"The Good of the Order," elicited a splendid address from Fred H. Lange. The growth of the Elks was fittingly eulogized, as was the order's features. J. Bernie Handlan instanced the results of other Elk street fairs to the glory of Wheeling's from information he secured on a recent trip to Toronto, Canada.

Will F. Loeffler rendered a piano solo, rag time, and James M. Collins cleverly recited "Don't You Know."

City Clerk O'Brien was frequently called on to speak of his approaching trip to Baltimore, on which occasion he will take unto himself a better half, and finally had "to say something." His remarks were mostly in a humorous vein, concluding with feeling tributes to Wheeling lodge.

J. P. Henley, formerly of Erie, Pa. lodge, now located in this city, praised Wheeling lodge's hospitality and its hustling qualities, as demonstrated in its street fair. Brother Kuntz, of Kentucky, told also of how good it was to be there.

There was an abundance of hilarity, a local "Late Mr. Early," posing as a timepiece for a congenial coterie, making a hit on this line. The success of the "stag" is due to the following committee, Messrs. John Klari, Bert Welty, C. W. Kreiter, Charles Aul, Louis F. Schrader, Fred Theirs.

Congratulations are in Order.

Friends in Wheeling have received this announcement of the approaching marriage of Mr. John Wallace, of the editorial staff of the Intelligencer, to Miss Dunlap, of West Alexander, and all will hasten to tender congratulations:

Mr. W. M. Dunlap requests your presence at the marriage of his daughter, Olive Doane,

Mr. John Wallace, Thursday afternoon, October the twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, at 4:30 o'clock, West Alexander, Pa. At Home, after November tenth, No. 118 Fourteenth St., Wheeling, W. Va.

There Is Danger

in dealing with irresponsible clothiers and cheap tailors. Appearances are deceitful, and when you find you have been deceived there is no recourse. We guarantee every garment we sell, no matter what they cost. Our Suits and Overcoats are precisely as they are represented to be, and the best values that the price can buy; any cause for dissatisfaction in fit or material will be remedied promptly and cheerfully. You may have your money back for the asking.

We Are Selling

twice as many of our Coats and Suits in this store than at any time during its history. There must be a reason for this—make your comparisons before buying. Something in the suit line that no other house in the city can show you. They are for the nobby dressers: Yale double breasted sack suit—real English, and Harvard double breasted, round corners, sack suit—something swell.

Prices.

Price is not the only thing. It's not always the price that makes the bargain. It's what you can get for the price.

In this scramble for business it is easily possible to disguise quality. Price is an argument to be sure, but it often covers many weaknesses.

Look about carefully, get prices, compare quality, and after that give us a chance to show you our $10.00 and $12.00 heavy Covert Cloth Overcoats and the beautiful Worsted Suits we are selling at $10.00, $12.00, $13.50 and $15.00.

Our prices are the very lowest possible. We don't think they are matched anywhere.
